

LETTER OF THE WEEK

What is your favourite fairytale love story and why?

"Mine is Charlotte's Web. Charlotte the spider and Fern the pig showed new piglet Wilbur unconditional love. As a child, I fantasised about such a world, where the animals could talk with each other. Love saved Wilbur from becoming Christmas dinner – he was more than just a runt, he was a loving friend. Now, it's a beautiful movie to share with my children."

what's hot

LOVE MAGNET

There's an alternative to speed dating or jumping online to meet Mr or Miss Right. Counsellor Tricia Brennan has released a 10-step audio guide, Attracting Love ($19.95), which can help you to boost your personal magnetism and attract luuurve. Visit www.bolinda.com.

DISCO DIVA

An eco-nightclub will open in London this month, where patrons can generate electricity simply by striking moves on the dance floor. The club will sell organic spirits in eco-friendly cups and give free entry to those who can prove they didn't drive there, as well. Cool.

PROUD AS PUNCH

We couldn't be prouder of Ms Minogue for being awarded an OBE (Order of the British Empire) at a Buckingham Palace ceremony last week. The singing budgie, who was diagnosed with breast cancer three years ago, has come a long way since her days on Neighbours and doing the Locomotion. Now she's hobnobbing with the Queen.

CITY SEEN CITY SEEN

Let us in on your Sydney goss at cityseen@ninetofive.com.au.

Auburn-haired beauty Lizzy Lovette is loving her new gig as the host of Channel 9's Saturday morning show Music Jungle. "I love that it's a strong female solo host – there aren't many roles like that on TV and I bagged one!" The single lass, who started out as a Black Thunder pilot in radio at 21 and worked her way up, has already been busy schmoozing with celebs on-screen – including Kelly Rowland. "She taught me how to booty bounce – that was a bit embarrassing! I don't recommend booty bouncing on national TV." As for her social butterfly tag, Lizzy dismisses it: "I don't know why I get called that – I don't even go out once a week! Work's the most important thing." Also catch Lizzy on 2DayFM 6-7pm weekdays.

Adelaide shoe-queen Mary-Kyri Pallaras, Australia's self-appointed answer to Manolo Blahnik, paid a visit to the Emerald City last week to launch her new collection at Favela. Her Italian-made heels have adorned the likes of Kylie Minogue, Teresa Palmer and Kim Kardashian. Seems she can't put a foot wrong. Visit www.mary-kyri.com.

M.A.C has partnered with beauty queen and author Zoe Foster to host free lunchtime events for wannabe glamour girls at Myer. To celebrate Foster's debut novel, Air Kisses, M.A.C is offering complimentary make-up sessions and the chance to meet the author at its city store on Friday, noon-2pm (ph: 9238 9141), and in Parramatta on Saturday, noon-2pm (ph: 9265 5489). Bookings essential.

what's not

UNAWARES

We couldn't help but think "wardrobe malfunction". Janet Jackson will launch a lingerie line – four years after her breast famously popped out of her outfit while performing with Justin Timberlake at the Super Bowl in a scandal dubbed "Boobgate". Could make a good name for her line...

PRINCESS DIARIES

The Princess of Denmark is said to have lost her touch and projects a bland personality now, according to royal reporter Trine Villemann, whose book, 1015 Copenhagen K, also criticises Prince Frederik for visiting old girlfriends. We wish poor Mary would be left alone.

CASHED UP

We sat through Get Smart and Sex and The City and admittedly enjoyed ourselves. Next up, The X-Files and possibly Friends will hit the silver screen. Never was it more obvious that our nostalgic memories are being cashed in upon. There's a reason things are made for TV. What next? Big Brother: The Movie?
